According to Leigh, the schedule has not yet been updated. Once the panel is set, ERG will prepare a new schedule. Will keep you posted.

This was before we asked for some reconsideration on the short list. Do we have a new schedule that you can share?

Subject: Updated schedule for proposing reviewers for Pavillion Study

Hi All,

As discussed, the final selection and proposal of reviewers will be delayed by two weeks to ensure sufficient time for review and deliberation by ERG's internal selection committee. The new schedule is listed below. Also attached is a copy.

New dates in blue/bold

June 26 ERG proposes peer reviewers

July 3 EPA accepts that reviewers meet technical selection criteria

July 12 ERG selects final set of reviewers and confirms their participation and schedule

July 17 ERG contracts with reviewers

August 2 ERG sends out Pavillion report, technical charge, compiled public comments to date, instructions, and logistical information

Let me know if you have any questions. Our next call will be at 1:30pm on June 20, 2012.

Best, Kate
